Rather late in the day a proposition comes from the Spanish party in Cuba for reconciliation with the insurgents. The latter are asked to reto be given representation in the Cortes, and full pardon for all past offenses; their estates are to be restored, and the Government promisslaves are freed. That the Spaniards are willing to stoop to offer such terms shows that they have been badly punished by the rebels.

Truman Smith, who graduated at Yale in 1815, or before most of our present Senators were born entered Congress in 1739, and while listening to the currency debates in Congress can recall the eloquent efforts of Daniel Webster and others on the same subject.

The correspondents of the American and English papers who accom panied the Ashanter expedition, and notably the representatives of the London Telegraph and New York Herald, have vividly described the cemetery of Coomassie into which the headless bodies of the human sacrifices, made annually at the Ashan tee Capital, were thrown. The Ashantee Golgotha is situated near thecity, and the festering remains poison the air around the glen in which they lie for miles around. It is esimated that, since the city was founded, 120,000 human beings have been sacrificed to the hideous rites of this barbarous race, and their bodies thrown upon the open plain to rot and breed disease.
